WELCOME TO EMERALD CROSSING.

INTRO

Experience...

...why the grass is greener here.

Forty-five minutes north of Brampton, lies a place where things move just a tad bit slower. Where the sky is just a little bit bigger. Where there's just a lot more room to breathe. It's a place that's grown into Canada's second fastest growing municipality and while its popularity has made it one of the hottest communities in Dufferin County, you'll need only visit it once to feel its warmth.

GREENSPACE

Experience...

Unspoiled Nature, Spoiled Nature Lovers.

Emerald Crossing and the surrounding area boast some of Dufferin County's most extensive and untouched greenspace. Here, countless kilometres of trails meander and snake through virtually untouched foliage, along the world-renowned Bruce Trail, to Murphy's Pinnacle Lookout and beyond. In Shelburne, true four-season enjoyment can be had regardless of the temperature. From nearby ski hills and rinks, to untold cross country and snowmobiling trails in winter, to the Bruce Trail, Split Rock Narrows, and Mono Cliffs Provincial Park year round, Shelburne has no shortage of ways to get out and enjoy nature in its purest form.

Hundreds of kilometres of trails and greenspace to explore.
